SEEING YOURSELF THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPEL
MARK 10:2-16

1. Marriages can break down, but in this story, Jesus appears as the wise person urging people to seek first the original harmony where possible, rather than seek escape routes when difficulties arise. When have you found that, in marriage of in other relationships, the bonds have been strengthened when you have been prepared to work through difficulties?

2. There are other things that we needlessly and wrongly put in opposition: young and old, male and female, people from different cultures, body and soul. Perhaps at times you have discovered the advantages of exploring the richness in combining such apparently exclusive opposites.

3. The children in the second story can be taken as representing any group of 'little ones' whose opinion we may be inclined to dismiss. When have you found that you have been taught an important lesson about life, about love, or about faith by people whose views you had been inclined to dismiss?

4. Children's curiosity and questioning can also give us a lesson. Their desire to know and understand the world around them can serve as an inspiration for us and we seek an ever deeper understanding and appreciation of how our faith can enrich lives.

DEANERY SYNODAL COUNCIL

The DSC met with the Deanery Clergy on Monday 23rd September.
At the meeting Jill Williams and Alan Stokes offered to be chairs alongside our Dean.

The main discussion was looking towards the future and how best we can carry out the mission of Our Lord in this part of the Diocese. We agreed to seek help in a facilitated process that will enable us to look at how we can work together and best use our resources.
We were asked to send a question or comment to the ASC (Archdiocesan Synodal Council) – we want to suggest that the Diocese look at the possibility of creating one parish out of all the Deanery parishes so we can better work together.

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Father of goodness and love,
Hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need.
Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence.
Show your mercy as you close wounds, cure illness,
make broken bodies whole and free downcast spirits.
May these special people find lasting health and deliverance, and so join us in thanking you for all your gifts.
We ask this through the Lord Jesus who healed those who believed.
Amen

CAFOD FAMILY FAST DAY

Our Harvest Fast Day was on Friday 4th October. Please use one of the CAFOD envelopes which you can find at the back of Church.
Thank you.

During this time while some are unable to receive the Eucharist at Mass, you may like to use a prayer of spiritual communion.

My Jesus,
I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.
I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there
And unite myself wholly to You.
I love you, my Jesus:
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen
