OUR PRIESTS

In a Deanery these are the priests:

Fr Grant Maddock—Dean

Canon Chris Fallon

Fr Philip Inch

Canon Mark Madden

Fr Gervase Moo

Mgr Des Seddon

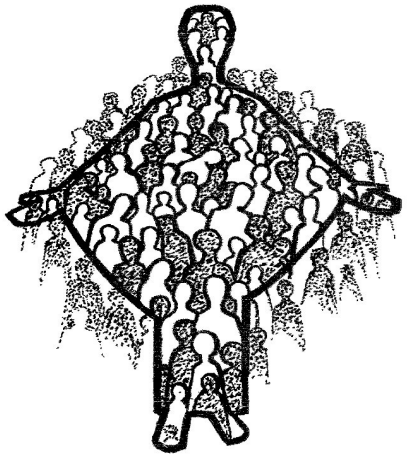

Fr Faustinus Ugwuanyi

Fr Bruce Walles

Fr Barry McAllister

These are our priests.
It is not just about priests it is about us.
Together, priests, deacons, lay people and religious sisters, we can pray, plan, reach out and serve our whole Deanery.

In establishing our Families of Parishes we are setting up a Caritas Group. (Caritas is the international name of the churches out-reach). To explore how there is a meeting on Thurs 22nd Feb at Holy Rosary at 7:00pm. If you have a passion for social justice, for local issues, for food banks, for cost of living issues, for SVP, CAFOD, environmental issues, justice and peace, live simply, then come along and help to shape what we could do in our Deanery and in our Families of Parishes.

BETTER TOGETHER; This was the title of a book written by Archbishop Worlock and Bishop Sheppard. This is also the idea behind our Families of Parishes, it is better to do certain things together. That is why we are working together as a Deanery and as Families of Parishes

Visitation: Bishop Tom Neylon is visiting the Deanery.
Holy Hours with the Bishop at 7.00pm Thurs 15th Feb at Holy Rosary.
Thursday 29th Feb at Our Lady of Walsingham. ALL WELCOME
The Bishop will meet the DSC on 29th Feb. at 6.00pm

Coming Soon in our Deanery and Families of Parishes:

A meeting for all the people involved in preparing children and families for 1st Holy Communion. This will be in the summer term. The gathering, led by Fr Des Seddon, will be to share what we do and to help us to learn from one another. Invitations will be sent out after Easter.

Marriage Preparation: The Deaneries of Sefton (Sefton Inland and Sefton Coast North and South) have been invited to pilot a new Diocesan Programme of Preparation for those wanting to get married in the Catholic Church.
