FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT (YEAR A)

Due to the Coronavirus, Archbishop Malcolm McMahon has cancelled ALL celebrations of Mass on Sundays and weekdays until further notice.
We are sorry for any inconvenience caused.
Fr Barry will be celebrating Mass privately

During this time, our Church will be open for private visits and prayer on Sunday from 11.00am until 12.00 noon

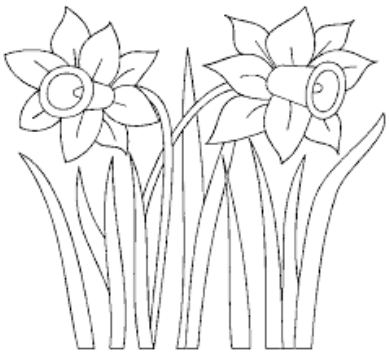

A Thought

John 9:1-41

Today's Gospel tells the story of the healing of the man born blind who, like us, is being invited to see more clearly, until he finally worships Jesus.

In contrast the Pharisees in the story are becoming more blind. The more clearly the man can see, the more opposition he faces, as those who hold power object to him and his new-found vision.

There are many characters in today's Gospel story: Jesus, the blind beggar, the disciples, the neighbours, the blind man's parents and the Pharisees.
Put yourself in the position of each one and see what you learn from identifying with them.

On this Mothering Sunday, we'd like to wish you all a very happy day.

This weekend Holy Mass will be live-streamed from the Metropolitan Cathedral, St Anne's, Overbury Street, St Gregory's, Chorley and St Mary's on the Isle of Man; and the Archdiocesan website will keep you abreast of new initiatives which will unite us in our prayer.
